

Ensuring that teachers, parents, and community members have an active voice in local education matters.

The Campus Advisory Council creates regular opportunities for teachers, support staff, parents, and community members to take part in advising campus administrators in order to improve education.

For information about joining your CAC or visiting a meeting, contact your school's principal.