

programs on campus; Kealing students and staff are working to broadcast a profile of the unique Kealing campus.

- x Curriculum coordinator at Kealing option to move the program from the Kealing campus undermines the vision; although there are advantages with co-locating two programs, the staff takes them on every day; academics will not thrive in isolation, students need to learn from each other
- x Magnet Director at Kealing students learn from each other; split the school programs; the school capitalizes opportunities for social and emotional learning experiences; the campus is worth the challenges that come with it.
- x LASA CAC member there are conflicts between LBJ and LASA; supporting LASA to the ALC campus due to its central location and opportunities for expansion; an(n)3( a)c6a

- x Members requested a white paper on Community Schools
