Gus Garcia Young Men's Leadership Academy will expand to and develop a Legal Studies and Social Justice Program with blended and personalized learning, additional professional and career opportunities, and increased interactions with colleges focusing on legal systems, policy, and social justice.

Serving Students

Students will develop profound leadership skills to increase advocacy in their communities while laying the groundwork for a career in policy and legal professions. Students will cultivate leadership and increased independent thought through a robust curriculum.

The idea for this scenario will work independently of all other ideas, however, it will be significantly stronger and can achieve the intended results when combined with Elevating the Secondary Multicultural Studies Curriculum scenario on page 11.

Preparing Our Kids To Succeed By

- ▶ Transitioning Gus Garcia to serve 6–12 grade with strengthened leadership opportunities.
- ▶ Implementing new programming focused on legal studies, politics and policy.
- ▶ Expanding career and technical education opportunities.
- ▶ Extending after school hours.
- ▶ Providing students with blended and personalized learning.
- ▶ Partnering with universities, professional and community organizations to develop and enhance curriculum.
- ▶ Serving as a flagship and demonstration site for implementing the districtwide middle and high school's social justice programs.

The Dobie-Webb Modernization Project

Students from Webb and Dobie middle schools will learn in a new, bright, modern school with flexible classrooms to serve both communities at the Dobie campus. To better serve families in the area, the International Welcome Center will also be located at the site. The Webb facility will close and students will attend the phased modernization of the Dobie campus with additional capacity, if needed. Combining the two student populations will increase the resources and access students have to enhanced academic programs, athletic teams, and elective choices like band, choir, and the arts. The campus communities will have the opportunity to provide input on the
